Do at the Zoo

All was merry and bright for Palm Beach Zoo & Conservation Society's highly anticipated Do at the Zoo annual al fresco fundraising event. Celebrated under the sparkling and brilliant Zoo lights, Palm Beach Zoo's eco-friendly holiday lights tradition presented by FPL SolarNow, Do at the Zoo was a luminous night of delicious cuisine, sip-sensational cocktails and commitment to wildlife.

More than 300 guests were welcomed by some of the Zoo's most fascinating and popular animals, always a highlight at every Zoo special event. Greetings were provided by Wilbur, the Zoo's quintessential celebrity sloth, and Crackle, the scarlet macaw, while party animal Sassy, the Florida panther, perched majestically on her catwalk above the festivities throughout the night.

Funds raised at Do at the Zoo help save wildlife in wild places and provide care for the Zoo's animal residents, many of which are rare, endangered or orphaned. Chairs of this wildly successful and festive event were Ruth Baum, Dr. Dan Comerford and Cy and Lulu Ryan.

The Zoo extends special gratitude to the many generous sponsors of Do at the Zoo, including a stellar line up of restaurant and spirits partners: Aioli, Almond, The Ben, Echo, Clandestine, E.R. Bradley's Saloon, Henry's Palm Beach, Hive Bakery, Island Kitchen, Lynora's, PB Catch, Proper Grit, Spruzzo, SSA Group, Subculture Coffee, Swank Farms, Table 26 and Tropical Smokehouse. Spirit sponsors raised the bar for the event and included Tito's Handmade Vodka, Beam Suntory, Civil Society, plus an eponymous specialty cocktail, The Tannenbomb, created by Zoo supporters, Mr. and Mrs. Len Tannenbaum, tippled the night fantastic as an event highpoint.

In addition to many individual Zoo supporters, sponsors providing big-hearted support were: gift bags by Camp Cocktails and SB Bakery; music sponsored by Black Diamond General Contracting; chauffer services offered by Jeevz; live art provided by Bulk Styles and Natasha Urbanowicz with Cloud Studio Agency; and, florals beautifully presented by Lewis Miller Design.
