Annual Report Featuring Artwork by Renowned Artist Nava Lundy

on the cover of the Community Foundation's materials during her time as a DSOA student. Now, with the unveiling of the Annual Report for 2022-2023, Lundy's art graces the cover once again, symbolizing the progression of her career and her enduring connection to the Community Foundation and Dreyfoos School of the Arts.

Born in New Jersey and raised in South Florida, Nava Lundy pursued her passion for art with dedication and tenacity. A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Lundy has been a professional artist since 1998, with her work garnering acclaim on both local and national levels. Her paintings are part of permanent collections worldwide, including prestigious institutions such as universities, museums, and Yad Vashem in Jerusalem, Israel. Notably, her art was featured in the PBS documentary After Parkland, highlighting her ability to capture powerful narratives through her work.

Nava Lundy's contributions to the art world have earned her numerous accolades, including The ACA Lifetime Achievement Award, further solidifying her status as a luminary in the artistic community.

The Community Foundation extends its gratitude to Nava Lundy for her inspiring work and continued support. She embodies the spirit of creativity and philanthropy that defines its mission.
