

REHABILITATION CENTER FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS
SPRING LUNCHEON

Soaring Through Spring

Donors and supporters of Palm Beach's Rehabilitation Center for Children and Adults (RCCA) celebrated Soaring Through Spring at the 31st Annual Spring Luncheon at The Beach Club. This enjoyable event began with cocktails and sparkling views of the perfect Florida weather. Chairwoman Meredith Hunt welcomed guests and highlighted various aspects of RCCA's progress and mission. "For over 80 years, the RCCA has represented healing in our community, providing exceptional one-on-one therapy to individuals of all ages as well as offering our community an inclusive preschool program for children requiring a full range of therapies."

While new and old friends dined under kites colorfully decorated by the RCCA's preschool children, Co-Chairwoman Micaela Hunt-Roberts spoke of her services at RCCA "It's an honor to stand before you today and share my journey as a proud graduate of the RCCA's preschool. As an inclusive setting for children with and without special needs, I thrived in this environment. Not only did my parents feel completely confident in the skills of the incredible teachers and therapists, but more importantly, they were also so comforted by the fact that I was in a setting where my teachers, therapists and peers focused on and encouraged my abilities. I firmly believe my formative foundation from the RCCA preschool has greatly contributed to numerous milestones I have accomplished throughout my life. The RCCA will always hold such a special place in my heart."

The pleasant afternoon included James McCreavy masterfully playing acoustic guitar. The sunrise inspired centerpieces by Ellie's Garden Design Studio were gorgeous artfully curated assortment of textural flowers. The soft yellow, peach and orange hues included including Icelandic poppies, sweet peas, aromatic garden roses, stock, parrot tulips and Oncidium mini orchids.

Sponsors for the event included Linda and Tom Hunt and Family, Findlay Galleries, Gunster, Palm Beach Board of Realtors, Key Private Bank, Katie and Bill Benjamin,
