

Tribute To A Legacy

In a heartfelt tribute to its Founding Chairman, the late Alexander W. Dreyfoos, leadership for the Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts unveiled a new cornerstone plaque just outside of Dreyfoos Hall. Kravis Center Board members, Life Trustees, staff, colleagues, friends, and family convened to honor a visionary, pioneer and philanthropist whose passion and dedication laid the groundwork for what the Kravis Center represents today.

"Alex Dreyfoos was an innovator and a creator," said Kravis Center CEO Diane Quinn. "He was instrumental in establishing a key cultural and performing arts hub in the community. Alex was quite fantastic at bringing together a diverse group of people and motivating them to commit to a project once deemed impossible."

The new brass plaque reads, "Our Founding Board Chairman Alexander W. Dreyfoos had a vision to transform Palm Beach County into a great cultural and economic center. This dream became a reality when the Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts opened its doors in 1992 and permanently changed the cultural landscape of our community. We are forever grateful." The dedication serves as a lasting tribute to Mr. Dreyfoos' unwavering commitment to the arts and the community, ensuring his legacy endures for generations to come.

"Alex greatly improved the quality of life in Palm Beach County and touched many lives," said Sherry Barrat, Kravis Center Board Chair. "While the Kravis Center is a big part of his legacy, Alex's influence is evident in nearly every local nonprofit, educational and cultural group in Palm Beach County."

The Kravis Center for the Performing Arts is a not-for-profit performing arts center located in West Palm Beach. The Kravis Center provides exceptional cultural experiences that entertain, inspire, and educate audiences across the entire community. For more information visit kravis.org.
