

Happy Tails

Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League, Palm Beach County's oldest animal rescue and a leading force for animal care, is delighted to announce the success of its fundraiser, Happy Tails. The event transformed The Park West Palm Beach into a pet lovers' paradise — featuring cocktails, buffet dinner, spectacular golf course views and 21 adoptable puppies and dogs looking for a loving new home.

Mish Tworkowski and Hillary Thomas Co-Chaired the event, which raised over $440,000 for dogs and cats in need. Major Sponsors included Anne and J. Christopher Flowers, Vicky and Sam Hunt, Virginia S. Burke, Pauline Pitt - The William H. Pitt Foundation, and Stephanie Shafran - The Otis Booth Foundation.

"This was a joyful evening filled with support and love for the animals," said Sue Berry, CEO of Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League. "As we celebrate our 100th anniversary year, we are especially grateful for the generosity of our donors. Because of them, Peggy Adams is the most valuable community resource in Palm Beach for pets and the people who love them. In the past year, we were able to serve over 35,000 animals through our various programs, thanks to our amazing supporters."

Two hundred supporters attended the Happy Tails event including Emilia and J. Pepe Fanjul, Sr., Callie Baker Holt, Connie and Peter Lacaillade, Jane Lauder, Ellen and Michael Merriman, Todd Peter, and Emilia Pfeifler.

As the team at Peggy Adams reflects on the success of Happy Tails, they are filled with gratitude for the unwavering support of the community they serve. Their collective efforts will fuel Peggy's Adams mission and help the organization continue to pave the way for humane animal care in Palm Beach County.

Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League is an independent nonprofit organization, operating continuously since 1925. Peggy Adams provides critical services to more than 35,000 animals each year and collaborates with local area organizations to expand the lifesaving work in Palm Beach County.
