

THE SOCIETY OF THE FOUR ARTS

Enchanted Evening in Eternal Egypt

Guests were transported back in time to the land of the pharaohs and the dance during The Society of the Four Arts' dinner dance, Enchanted Evening in Eternal Egypt. The event was led by Chair Pamela Patsley and Co-Chair Jean Rutherford.

The 475 guests in attendance enjoyed a cocktail hour under the stars and a full moon. Inside the beautiful tent a three-course meal was served including a Mediterranean salad, glazed short rib, and a golden chocolate pyramid dessert. Catering was through Creative Edge Catering. Virginia Philip Wine Spirits & Academy procured the wine. The magical evening featured music from The Sultans and a special Egyptian performance by New Century Dance with an elaborate entrance of Queen Cleopatra, followed by a triumphant dance to Verdi's Grand March of Aida, culminating in a fun "King Tut" rendition. Thanks to Michele Wilde for consulting, Regency Party for constructing the clear-topped tent, FROST for creating the lighting and sound design, Renny and Reed Floral and Event Design for creating the decorations and aesthetics. Guests left with a sweet treat from Norman Love Confections.

Among the sponsors and guests in attendance were James Borynack and Adolfo Zaralegui, Cindy and Chris Galvin, Carole Moran, Gary Patsley, Thomas Rutherford, Mary Randolph Ballinger, Ralph and Cornelia Heins, Ambassador Bonnie McElveen-Hunter and Gil Kemp, Carl and Jane Panattoni, Ronnie Heyman and Ward Blum, Thomas Peterffy and Lynne Wheat, and Charles and Helen Schwab.

Proceeds from an Enchanted Evening in Eternal Egypt will benefit the mission of The Society of the Four Arts. For more information visit fourarts.org.
