KICK OFF

The Fifth Biennial Palm Beach Navy SEAL Evening of Tribute kicked off with a cocktail reception hosted by Michael Kluger and Heidi Greene at their house in Palm Beach. The reception drew nearly 80 supporters, friends, town council members and honored military guests.

The al fresco reception included words of welcome from past co-chairwoman, Margie O'Neil, who recognized Chair Emeritus and event Founder, Rebecca Williams, and past event chairwomen Jane Woodman, Ann Heathwood, Mollie Slattery and Kai Cundey. Mrs. O'Neil said the past chairmen were passing the baton, and introduced Elliot Hershberg, Michael Kluger and Matt Smith, the new Co-Chairs of the upcoming Evening of Tribute on April 6, 2022 at The Breakers Palm Beach.

Mr. Hershberg thanked the Klugers for hosting the event and introduced guest speaker, Captain Rick Woolard, a retired SEAL, decorated war veteran and President of the National Navy SEAL Museum, who regaled the guests with riveting anecdotes.

Mr. Smith thanked Captain Woolard, and told the guests about a special child-friendly, Navy SEAL demonstration that will take place at the Mandel Recreation Center in Palm Beach on January 22, 2022. He thanked everyone for their efforts and support on behalf of Navy SEALs and their families.

The elite warriors will be honored at the Palm Beach Navy SEAL Evening of Tribute, on April 6, 2022 at The Breakers Palm Beach with proceeds benefiting the Navy SEAL Foundation and Navy SEAL Museum and Trident House. The patriotic evening will feature the greatly anticipated SEAL demonstration and keynote speaker, Vice Admiral Joe McGuire from America's elite fighting force.
