

ST. JUDE CHILDREN'S RESEARCH HOSPITAL

Reach For The Stars

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital kicked off spring in South Florida for the 14th Annual St. Jude Palm Beach Cocktail Party, Reach for the Stars, presented by and in memory of Robert Thomas Butler. Hosted at The Colony Hotel, the spring soiree included a reception with delectable cuisine, cocktails and special St. Jude moments.

The Chairs for the event were Stephen and Erin Hawthornthwaite and the Honorary Chair was Ashley Miller. The event benefited the lifesaving mission of St. Jude, "Finding cures. Saving Children."

"Collectively, our community is committed to advancing many missions, but with your demonstrated support and presence, we celebrate the active role you play in advancing St. Jude's mission," said event Co-Chair, Erin Hawthornthwaite. "We fund the research that will save the lives of hundreds of thousands of children stricken with cancer and other life-threatening diseases throughout the nation and around the globe. We would like to recognize our event Co-Founder and former ALSAC/St. Jude Board Member, Thomas Quick whose foundation, passion, and commitment to St. Jude over the years has shaped our fundraising efforts, specifically here in Palm Beach, but truly around the globe."

During the event, guests heard from local St. Jude patient Slater, and his entire family, about the 10 year old's life-changing experience at St. Jude. The evening concluded with a Call to the Heart "Give to Live" where guests were able to make charitable contributions to St. Jude.
