LUNCHEON

The Salvation Army Women's Auxiliary of Palm Beach County hosted their 35th Annual Hearts of Gold Luncheon at The Beach Club.

The event honors women who are making a positive impact in the community. This year, they honored Pamela Rauch, VP of External Affairs and Economic Development for FP&L and Beatty Page Cramer, Co-Chair of the Advisory Board of The Salvation Army of Palm Beach County.

The Luncheon featured an elegant surf & turf lunch, a silent auction, vendors, and a stunning fashion show by Rose Meyerowich. Award-winning actress Susan Lucci, contributed to the celebratory atmosphere with her attendance.

"We are very excited to have our 35th year celebrating The Salvation Army and all the good they do in our community," said Maria Mamlouk, who is Co-President of The Women's Auxiliary along with Sandra Schneider. One of the founders, Catherine Booth stated, "you are not here in the world for yourself, you have been sent here for others, the world is waiting for you." These words continue to inspire the women who are part of The Salvation Army's Women's Auxiliary.

Founded in Palm Beach County by Charlotte Sinclair in 1988, this exceptional group of volunteer ladies give their time and effort to support and further the goal of The Salvation Army by providing help and hope to those in need. Proceeds from the event help to support services for veterans, homeless, youth, children and anti-human trafficking programs.

If you would like to join this wonderful group of ladies call Christina Leone at 561.686.3530, ext. 26280. For more information regarding The Salvation Army of Palm Beach County visit salvationarmyflorida.org
