

TOP ROW: Erica Haft and Aisha Ali; Gabrielle and Chong Luo; Joseph and Max McNamara; BOTTOM ROW: Bradley Hurston, Stephanie Glavin and Cory Valentine; Mary Allen Saunders and Emily Starkey; Jack Boyland and Ryan Haffey

An Evening of Community and Networking

Recently, Young Friends of the Kravis Center celebrated the 30th Anniversary season by gathering for cocktails prior to the performance of Postmodern Jukebox, featuring the greatest 20th Century musical genres, fused with the recognizable hits of our own modern era. The reception was held in the Kravis Center's Ellen and Robert M. Jaffe Windsor Room.

Throughout the season, Kravis Center Young Friends enjoyed an exclusive backstage tour, networking events, as well as attending performances. The group will end the season by supporting the education program, the Kravis Center Dream Awards, an evening celebrating high school musical theater in Palm Beach County. Three Young Friends Executive Committee members will present awards at the June 4th event.

"We enjoyed the season alongside numerous outstanding individuals who possess a deep passion for the performing arts and are dedicated to making a positive impact on the community," said Aisha Ali, Vice President and Banker, J.P. Morgan Private Bank and Young Friends Executive Committee Chair. "This program continues to draw young professionals who seek to enhance their local engagement with meaningful experiences through the arts."

The Young Friends of the Kravis Center is a group of young professionals who support the mission of the Kravis Center and are committed to supporting arts and culture in Palm Beach County.

Membership for Young Friends of the Kravis Center starts at $125 annually. For information email Ali Rehm, Development Officer at rehm@kravis.org, 561.651.4297 or visit kravis.org/youngfriends. The Kravis Center is a not-for-profit performing arts center located at 701 Okeechobee Boulevard in West Palm Beach. The Center's mission is to enhance the quality of life in Palm Beach County by presenting a diverse schedule of national and international artists and companies of the highest quality, by offering comprehensive arts education programs — serving over three million students since its inception; by providing a Palm Beach County home for local and regional arts organizations to showcase their work; by being an economic catalyst; and by providing community leadership in West Palm Beach, supporting efforts to increase travel and tourism to Palm Beach County.