

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS

Celebrate Making A Difference

Over 100 young professionals and philanthropists gathered for a happy hour reception at Meat Market in Palm Beach. Young Friends members from four local nonprofit organizations came together to celebrate making a difference in Palm Beach County. The guests mingled while enjoying drinks and hors d'oeuvres. The nonprofit organizations involved in the event included the Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts, the Historical Society of Palm Beach County, the Palm Beach Symphony and Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League.

"We had an incredible time connecting with many remarkable individuals who are passionate about making a positive impact in our community," said Diane Quinn, Kravis Center Chief Executive Officer.

"The Kravis Center Young Friends group is committed to supporting arts and culture in Palm Beach County and this event was a wonderful way to network with other like-minded young professionals," said Aisha Ali, Kravis Center Young Friends Executive Committee Chair and Vice President at J.P. Morgan Private Bank.

Membership for Young Friends of the Kravis Center includes benefits such as advance ticket ordering for Kravis Center presentations, priority access to Kravis On Broadway and Kravis Center Classical Concert Series tickets, and invitations to Young Friends special events.

The Kravis Center is a not-for-profit performing arts center located at 701 Okeechobee Blvd. in West Palm Beach. The Center's mission is to enhance the quality of life in Palm Beach County by presenting a diverse schedule of national and international artists and companies of the highest quality, by offering comprehensive arts education programs; by providing a Palm Beach County home for local and regional arts organizations to showcase their work; and by providing an economic catalyst and community leadership in West Palm Beach, supporting efforts to increase travel and tourism to Palm Beach County.
