

Thank You Luncheon

S Stanton Collemer, CEO of the Cancer Alliance of Help & Hope (CAHH), hosted a Thank-You Luncheon at The Colony Palm Beach. The event, attended by dozens of donors and supporters, was made possible by the generous sponsorship of Sarah and Robert Wetenhall, and The Colony Palm Beach.

“This Luncheon is my favorite event of the year,” said Stanton. “It is an opportunity for Cancer Alliance to express our gratitude to all of our supporters, sponsors, and donors.” Stanton went on to say during the program that “each one of you here today holds a special place in our organization and contributes significantly to the success of our mission. Volunteers are the backbone of any organization, and with a staff of only three, we could never achieve what we do without your support. Thanks to your generosity, we raised $2 million from our events this year to help local cancer patients in need with their everyday living expenses!”

During the program, many supporters and donors were given special mention, including the incredible CAHH board of directors, who have been instrumental in the nonprofit organization’s success. The CAHH leadership team includes Sheila Buchbinder, Chris Cox, David Sarama, Sherry Walker-Borchert, Corey Brown, Katie Klause-Newitt, Kathy McKinnon, Michelle Worth, and Barbara Zand.

Arlette Gordon, a dedicated supporter and Chair of the 2024 Shop the Day Away Luncheon, took the opportunity during this special event to thank Stanton, the face of Cancer Alliance, for his unwavering leadership and dedication to Cancer Alliance’s mission, board, and the people CAHH serves.

Stanton also thanked his colleagues Doug Duke and Dyana Fernandez, who received a standing ovation from guests for their tireless and crucial work assisting CAHH clients throughout the year.
