

KRAVIS CENTER DRESS CIRCLE Members Honored

Dress Circle members of the Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts were honored at a special dinner in the Gimelstob Ballroom in the Cohen Pavilion. More than 250 supporters were in attendance to celebrate the Kravis Center's 30th Anniversary.

The dinner was sponsored by Bank of America, a Kravis Center Corporate Partners member and loyal donor who has supported the Center for 30 years. After dinner, guests enjoyed a performance in Dreyfoos Hall by Black Violin, a violist and violinist who combine their classical training with hip-hop influences. The performance was sponsored by Helen S. and Merrill L. Bank Foundation.

Kravis Center CEO Diane Quinn welcomed guests and introduced a milestone anniversary video, recapping the Center's last 30 years, saying, "Our 30th Anniversary season is a great time to celebrate the Kravis Center's past, present and future. Looking back, we are so fortunate we have many long-term supporters — in fact, more than 500 donors have given consistently each year for the past 30 years."

Ms. Quinn then welcomed Kravis Center Board Chair, Sherry Barrat to the podium. "Our anniversary season is off to an incredible start," said Ms. Barrat. "We kicked off Kravis on Broadway with On Your Feet!, and our series subscriptions are at an amazing 9,200. Ms. Barrat then shared some more good news. "Norma and Len Klorfine, long-term donors at the Center — Norma serves on our Board of Directors — have generously offered up to a one million dollar match for new gifts received at the end of December 2022, in amounts of $1,000 and above. We are so grateful to the Klorfines for making it possible for donors to double their impact. What a great gift."
