

Philanthropy Tank

Philanthropy Tank thanked their supporters during an intimate cocktail reception at the Palm Beach home of Philanthropy Tank Philanthropist investor Frances Fisher. Frances and Jeffrey Fisher also sponsored the event.

The reception featured a musical performance from Alive With Music, a Philanthropy Tank awarded program that brings students into nursing homes to provide music therapy to those suffering from Alzheimer's Disease. Student representatives from several other Philanthropy Tank awarded programs also showcased their organizations, including StudentBodyHealth, a student-led group that teaches youth about mental health wellness, and South Florida Tech for Seniors, a student-run nonprofit that helps senior citizens with their technology needs and basic computer skills.

Attendees at the reception also had the chance to win an exclusive dinner for 10 prepared at their home donated by five-time James Beard Award Nominee and Buccan owner, Chef Clay Conley. Proceeds from the auction will benefit Philanthropy Tank in its mission to empower the next generation of CHANGEmakers.

Philanthropy Tank challenges, empowers, and equips students to develop and execute sustainable initiatives and solutions to solve problems in their communities. Philanthropist Investors fund student initiatives, investing in their own community projects. Through one-to-one mentoring, philanthropist investors fuel students' desire, helping them execute initiatives, while increasing their ability to make meaningful change. Since 2015, Philanthropy Tank has awarded over $600,000 in funding to more than 45 student-led projects. For more information visit www.philanthropytank.org

FIRST ROW: Joan and Evan Deoul with Frances Fisher; Alive With Music Musicians; Amy and Robert Brand; SECOND ROW: Tim and Vicki Pugh; Peter and Wendy Oliver; THIRD ROW: Tiffany Bufton and Bill Meyer; Alive With Music Musicians