Let's Flamingle for the Kids

Palm Beach supporters of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital are planning a new mix-and-mingle soirée called Let's Flamingle for the Kids at 6:30pm on Thursday, March 31st, at The Colony Hotel.

For more than a decade, the Palm Beach community has supported St. Jude kids with cancer and other life-threatening diseases through fundraising and awareness events like this one. Co-Chaired by Lourdes Fanjul, Talbott Maxey and Thomas C. Quick, the evening program will include cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, food stations, live Cuban music by the Oriente Quartet and a 360-degree photo booth for guests to capture memories in their tropical chic attire.

Cancer is a multi-trillion dollar, multi-year problem requiring millions of supporters coming together to help find a cure. Funds raised will help fuel the current six-year, $11.5 billion St. Jude strategic plan that expands patient care and research and triples its global investment to impact more of the 400,000 kids with cancer around the world each year. Because of generous donors, families never receive a bill from St. Jude for treatment, travel, housing or food, so they can focus on helping their child live.

"We're grateful for the Palm Beach community's steadfast support of the lifesaving mission of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital," said Lyles Eddins, Southeast Territory Vice President for ALSAC, the fundraising and awareness organization for St. Jude. "Because of their generosity, St. Jude is celebrating 60 years of groundbreaking research and treatment that has resulted in lives being saved globally."

St. Jude shares the breakthroughs it makes, and every child saved at St. Jude means doctors and scientists worldwide can use that knowledge to save thousands more children. St. Jude won't stop until no child dies from cancer.

Tickets for Let's Flamingle for the Kids are $300 per person. Sponsorship opportunities are available. Visit stjude.org/palmbeach, email Chad Buschell at Chad.Buschell@alsac.stjude.org or call 305.401.3903 for more information.
